Management Representation Letter

February 12, 2021

Schonwit & Associates, CPA 151 Kalmus Drive, #M-3A Costa Mesa, California 92626

This representation letter is provided in connection with your audit of the financial statements of Park Hotel Condominiums Association of Unit Owners, Inc., which comprise the balance sheet as of December 31, 2020, and the related statements of revenues, expenses, and changes in fund balance, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, for the purpose of expressing an opinion as to whether the financial statements are presented fairly, in all material respects, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP).

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement. An omission or misstatement that is monetarily small in amount could be considered material as a result of qualitative factors.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, as of February 12, 2021, the following representations made to you during your audit.

Financial Statements

- 1. We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement letter dated August 18, 2020 including our responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements.
- 2. The financial statements referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with U.S. GAAP.
- 3. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.
- 4. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.
- 5. Significant assumptions we used in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable.
- 6. Related party relationships and transactions have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with the requirements of U.S. GAAP.

- 7. All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements and for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.
- 8. The effects of all known actual or possible litigation, claims, and assessments have been accounted for and disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
- 9. Material concentrations have been properly disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
- 10. Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the Association is contingently liable, have been properly recorded or disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
- 11. Transfers or designations of fund balance or interfund borrowings have been properly authorized and approved and have been properly recorded or disclosed in accordance with GAAP.
- 12. Uncollectible interfund loans have been properly accounted for and disclosed in accordance with GAAP.
- 13. Revenue from contracts with customers has been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with FASB ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The underlying revenue recognized in the financial statements from all contracts have commercial substance and have been approved by appropriate parties. We have sufficient and appropriate documentation (through the budget) supporting all estimates and judgments supporting the amount and timing of revenue recognized in the financial statements.
- 14. We have adopted FASB ASC 606 beginning January 1, 2019. We have implemented the new accounting standard(s) in accordance with the transition guidance. We have sufficient and appropriate documentation supporting all estimates and judgments underlying the amounts recorded and disclosed in the financial statements.

Information Provided

- 15. We have provided you with:
 - a. Access to all information, of which we are aware, that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements, such as records, documentation, and other matters.
 - b. Additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit.
 - c. Unrestricted access to persons within the Association from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence.
- 16. All material transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements.
- 17. We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.
- 18. We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects the Association and involves:
 - a. Management,
 - b. Employees who have significant roles in internal control, or

- c. Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.
- 19. We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the Association's financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, regulators, or others.
- 20. We have disclosed to you all known instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements.
- 21. We have disclosed to you all known actual or possible litigation, claims, and assessments whose effects should be considered when preparing the financial statements.
- 22. We have disclosed to you the identity of the Association's related parties and all the related party relationships and transactions of which we are aware.
- 23. The Association has satisfactory title to all owned assets, and there are no liens or encumbrances on such assets nor has any asset been pledged as collateral.
- 24. We acknowledge our responsibilities for presenting the required supplementary information (RSI) in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The RSI is measured and presented within prescribed guidelines, and the methods of measurement and presentation have not changed from those used in the prior period. We have disclosed to you any significant assumptions and interpretations underlying the measurement and presentation of the RSI.
- 25. We understand that management is responsible for the Association's choice of filing [Form 1120 OR Form 1120-H] and the consequences thereof.
- 26. We are in agreement with the adjusting journal entries, if any, you have recommended.
